10	The conversations on opening night were so stimulating. As a 72 year old woman the expo taught me an amazing amount of ideas since I breast fed.	6/6/2018 8:14 PM
11	This makes it appear that breast feeding is too easy. And if you can't there is something wrong with you. I had difficulty with the first child and could not. The best advise was a nurse telling me its ok I'm not a bad mother. No problem with second child. both kids turned out ok.	6/6/2018 8:13 PM

47	A great project initiative!	3/26/2018 12:33 PM
48	It brought up public breasteeding. I am all for it personally but some people don't like it. I think it's because society sexualizes the breast so much	3/26/2018 12:32 PM
49	What a wonderful and all encompassing display. I was brought to tears when reading "Down by the Lake". I also enjoted viewing the other artifacts in the En'owkin Cultural Centre	3/26/2018 12:30 PM
50	This was so beautiful. So Impsiring to see all the pieces and hear the stories!	3/26/2018 12:29 PM
51	Very important exhibition that shows why breastfeeding is vital for our children's "foundation" and also how art can be used to support important matters	3/26/2018 12:29 PM
52	Always try breastfeeding first before reverting to other resources to nourish your newborn	3/26/2018 12:24 PM
53	Keep doing cool awareness projects like this!	3/26/2018 12:20 PM
54	I caught end of it in Kelowna - was recommended by a young gal about to deliver her first baby. I wish there would have been something like this when I was having my babies (1975-1981)	3/26/2018 12:19 PM
55	I've dedicated my entire professional life to supporting educating families in their desire to nurture their children through breastfeeding. Love this medium of art! <3 I continue to work as a lactation consultant. Worked for IH for 38 years	3/26/2018 12:18 PM
56	I was impressed to see a painting about the feelings of not being able to breastfeed	3/26/2018 12:17 PM
57	I raised my children in the '70's in BC. I breastfed one of my 2 daughters. My oldest child missed out on the benefits of breastmilk (it was the "thing" in 1973 to bottle feed). I learned much more about why it is better to give new borns breastmilk so my 2nd child was started out, and remained on breastmilk for many months. I nursed her when she needed it regardless of where I was, but used a light baby sheet to cover myself. I ignored the whispering and disapproving looks and comments as I knew I was right to nurse her wherever. It is only our lingering Victorian era hangups that fight the natural and more common - worldwide - public breastfeeding. I stand firmly, at 68 years of age, on the side of "freedom to breastfeed in public," always.	3/26/2018 12:15 PM

58	Bringing awareness and creativity of breastfeeding via art is powerful	3/26/2018 12:14 PM
59	Very well done and illustrative for people to understand	3/26/2018 12:13 PM
60	A vastly superior presentation in this space than what was done at the Kelowna Rotary Centre for the Arts. Thank you!	3/26/2018 12:12 PM
61	Inspiring. I believe more people need to know that aside from being beautiful and natural it is a womans legal right to breastfeed openly anywhere	3/26/2018 12:11 PM
62	Was amazing	3/26/2018 12:10 PM
63	It was a beautiful expose of photos, arts and words that commented on a shared vision	3/26/2018 12:09 PM
64	Beautiful - like the fact that galleries are joining eachother in art shows	3/26/2018 12:06 PM
65	I think expressing health issues through art is a great idea for reaching the community.	3/26/2018 11:55 AM
66	some pieces very amazingly beautiful	3/26/2018 11:53 AM
67	Great art! Project at top of stairs was too hidden though, not many will see	3/26/2018 11:51 AM
68	Wonderful topic for all to consider	3/26/2018 11:41 AM
69	As a maternity nurse, it is incredible to see more awareness being spread about BF :) <3	3/26/2018 11:41 AM
70	Fantastic	3/26/2018 11:40 AM
71	Fabulous Idea - Comment regarding "Be more supportive of women breastfeeding: already very supportive	3/26/2018 11:38 AM
72	Beautifully done! Thank you. I work at Vancouver Island University and teach maternity nursing in the BSN Nursing Program	3/26/2018 10:47 AM
73	Very beautiful. I support women feeling free to breastfeed in public, but I think they should do it because they want to, not to purposely make others feel uncomfortable to make a point. As with any activity, it is the motivation behind it that makes it good or bad. If a woman breastfeeds in public for convenience and out of love, then it is beautiful. But if she does it to show that her rights are more important than the rights of others around her, perhaps that's not very good motivation. Non-breastfeeders should be respectful of breastfeeding women's rights, and those women in turn should be respectful and consider if even though they have the right, sometimes it is kind to consider others feelings. It's all about mutual respect. Thank you for the beautiful display!	3/26/2018 10:29 AM
74	Amazing - from a NICU nurse, loved it! Posting on the KGH maternity FB page	3/26/2018 10:28 AM
75	I was beyond excited to hear about the expo. The art was great! I loved the encouraging words	3/26/2018 10:26 AM
76	It was well organized and easy to view. The music and the food (Kelowna) was a big plus. It was an excellent art display, just of different types of art.	3/26/2018 10:25 AM
77	I was very taken by the variety of pieces on display. I took part in various aspects of the BAE over the past three years and it's great to see it come to its fruition.	3/26/2018 10:24 AM
78	What a great way to integrate health into a more widelyused and accessible form like art!	3/26/2018 10:23 AM
79	I loved the many different mediums used as well as the stories and artist profiles listed next to the piece.	3/26/2018 10:22 AM
